

I have love having xm radio. It provides me with many choices of listening pleasure. The reason we live in this country is to have fredom of choice. If you are afraid that the compition is to strong then get out. Free enterprise it what it is all about. Stop trying to control everything and let people make their own choices. Its about freedom of choice not who has the better system.
Ronda Beveridge